If there is one thing we sincerely believe in, here at GetLitt!, It is that stories are one of the best ways to teach children's life lessons. It is not only books, but also storytellers and their stories that have been transmitted by oral tradition that add value to the life of our children. One of these storytellers is Tenali Ramakrishna, also known as Tenali Raman or Tenali Rama. Who is Tenali Rama? Tenali Rama was a poet and consultant to Telugu at the court of King Krishnadevaraya, in what is now known as Andhra Pradesh. He was also known as the courtship because of his witty and humorous stories. Tenali Rama had a propensity to solving problems using his intelligence and values and therefore his stories are great stories for children. These mythological stories have been transmitted since the early 16th century. More recently, they saw a rebirth that is all thanks to the animated series of Cartoon Network (India) called “The adventures of Tenali Raman”. The success of the program and its stories led to spin-offs as The animated series Rajguru Aur Tenaliram, which was aired on Star Utsav and is now available on YouTube. Nothing can overcome the charm of reading these stories, and that’s why we wanted to select our favorite tales of Tenali Raman for you. If your children love moral troubleshooting stories, they will enjoy listening to these stories of Tenali Raman in English. Stories of Tenali Raman in English 1 - The greatest fool of the kingdom! The rumor was that if someone saw Ramaya in the morning E, they would be amalgidated and could not eat all day long. Listening to this, the king wanted to test him to himself. The guards made the arrangements to Ramaya and set up a room beside the king to him. The following morning, the king went to Ramaya’s room so that he could look at him the first thing and test that rumor. It happened as soon as lunch time, the king saw a fly in his meal and asked the cook to take her and prepare a new lunch. By the time the lunch was served again, the king had lost his appetite and realized that this rumor was really true *seeing Ramaya’s face first in the morning - made people amalgidated. He did not want this to his people and demanded that Ramaya be hanged. Distrarug, Ramaya’s wife goes to Tenali Raman for help because she doesn’t want to lose her husband. Listening to the whole story, Tenali Raman goes to Ramaya and whispers something in his ear, even before being taken to be hanged. On the same day, the guards ask Ramaya if he has any last desire. Ramaya says he wants to give the king a note that he should read before the hanging. The guards deliver this note to the king. In the note were the words that Tenali Raman whispered à € “à € eñI see Ramaya’s face, the appetite is lost; so a person who will be the king’s face, first thing morning, is intended lose his life. Moral eÁÁÁ DoneÁÁÁI give in to superstitions 5 eÁÁÁ Saluting the Donkeys Image courtesy akpure.com In the KingeÁÁAs court, there was a very orthodox teacher named Tathacharya who belonged to the Vaishnavite sect. He looked down on other people, especially the Smarthas eÁÁÁ covering his face with a cloth whenever he saw people from this and other sects. Fed up of this behaviour, the King and other courtiers went to Tenali Raman for his help. After listening to everyoneeÁÁAs complaints about the royal teacher, Tenali Raman went to TathacharyaeÁÁAs house. Upon seeing Tenali, the teacher covered his face. Seeing this, Tenali asked him why he did that. He explained that Smarthas were sinners and to look upon the face of a sinner meant that he would be turned into a donkey in his next life. ThateÁÁAs when an idea struck Tenali! One day, Tenali, the King, Tathacharya and the other courtiers went on a picnic together. As they were returning from their picnic, Tenali spotted some donkeys. He immediately ran up to them and started saluting them. Puzzled, the King asked Tenali why he was saluting the donkeys. Tenali then explained that he was paying his respects to TathacharyaeÁÁAs ancestors, who had become donkeys after looking at the faces of Smarthas. Tathacharya understood Tenali’eÁÁAs harmless behaviour, and from that day forward, never covered his face again. Moral eÁÁÁ DoneÁÁÁI judge people on their caste or religion.
